

Updates to remuneration policy

The Group Remuneration Policy does not encourage excessive risk taking, including sustainability risk. Any breach of the Sustainability Risk Policy by the first and second line of control is reflected at individual level on performance assessment of the employee.